Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation always be full of grace, seasoned with salt.

Colossians 4:6

When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today." So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly.

But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount."

Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

Luke 19:5-6,8-10

START THE CONVERSATION

What Bible verse would you paint on your living room wall?

How would you describe your conversations?

Why are grace-filled words important?

How do your conversations influence your relationships?

How often do you start conversations with those that are different from you?

Describe a time when you experienced the "wrong end" of Christians?

What opportunity is Jesus calling you to make the most of right now?
